

The training center of equestrian Domaine de la Chenaie is essentially a forum for exchange of ideas in which coaches, judges and riders can get together in order to constantly improve their favorite discipline.

A peaceful atmosphere will guarantee a happy stay during which you progress through full respect for the physical and mental integrity of your horse.

You can keep abreast of the various courses offered by visiting our site regularly.

Besides of our courses with outside, Alain François offers personal training throughout the year. For more information, contact us
